

Ethics Officer: Role Description

Responsible to:

Swansea University Students' Union membership on ethical issues and the Union's ethical behaviour and approach to ethical issues.

Mission:

The role of this executive member is to recognise and represent the views of those students at Swansea University Students' Union executive level. It is expected the Ethics Officer will review and update the ethical procedures of the Union while campaigning for a more ethical approach by the Students' Union and University.

Main Duties and Responsibilities:

The Ethics Officer will work closely with the Full Time Officers and full time staff to help highlight, research and campaign on ethical issues in the University and Students' Union.

It is expected that the Ethics Officer will work closely with the Environment Officer to raise awareness about ethical and environmental campaigns that cross.

It is expected the Ethics Officer will keep up to date with the work done nationally by ethical issue pressure groups, ethical issues campaigns, as well as NUS and local and national government policy.

It is expected the Ethics Officer will promote the message of the Union and encourage students with an ethical issues interest to get involved in the Union.

As a member of the executive team it is expected that the Ethics Officer will attend executive officer meetings as well as Student Forums, at which the officer can feed back to membership.

Develop useful connections between individuals and student groups, that may help to increase involvement in campaigning and lobbying for improved ethical practices in the Union and University.

The Ethics officer will be a key member in the Campaign Forum.
